

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I.

THE EARLIEST KNOWN MEMBERS OF THE ADAMS FAMILY.

SECTION I: The origin of the name—William Adams of Tunstall, 1299, and his contemporaries—Tunstall Manor Court. SECTION II: The Adams family of Burslem, Tunstall, and Bemersley—William Adams, Headborough of Burslem, 1373—First appearance of “de” in name, 1378—William de Adams at law with the Rector of Stoke, 1404. SECTION III: The descendants of Richard de Adams of 1378. SECTION IV: Richard and William Adams procure clay for potting, 1448—Richard acquires 32 acres in Sneyd—William Adams murdered by Thomas de Chell, 1525. SECTION V: John Adams of Bruckehouse—Thomas Adams (No. 1) of Burslem—his properties there . p. 1

CHAPTER II.

THE ADAMS FAMILY OF SNEYD (CONTINUED).

SECTION I: Nicholas Adams—Muster Roll of 1539—Subsidy Roll of 1563—Notes on the Adamases of Shropshire and U.S.A. SECTION II: Richard Adams (No. 6)—Thomas Bayly of Bradnop and Thomas Vernon marry the coheiresses of Nicholas Adams (No. 2) SECTION III: John Adams of Sneyd and his descendants. SECTION IV: Joseph Adams of Burslem, master potter, the maternal ancestor of William Adams of Greengates. SECTION V: James Adams of Burslem and his descendants of Manchester and U.S.A. . . . p. 29

CHAPTER III.

THE ADAMS FAMILY OF BURSLEM.

SECTION I: Thomas Adams (No. 2) of Burslem—his son Thomas marries Joan Burslem. SECTION II: The Burslems of Burslem and Newcastle, Staffs., and Cole-Orton, Leics. . . . . p. 55

CHAPTER IV.

THE ADAMS FAMILY OF BURSLEM & LONGBRIDGE HAYES.

William Adams of Longcroft, &c.—The Mainwaring Law Suit—John Adams of Longcroft, &c.—Thomas Adams, Incumbent of Rushton Spencer, Trentham, and Blurton—The Beards of Newcastle—Sir Ralph Bagnall and the Bagnalls—The Colcloughs—Robert Adams of Longcroft, &c.—The

Daniels and their connection with the Adamases and the Tunstalls—John Adams (No. 1) of the Brick House, &c.—Brickhouse Pottery founded, 1657—John Adams (No. 2) of the Brick House, &c.—Master Potters of North Staffordshire in 1710—Ralph Adams of the Brick House, &c.—John Shrigley—John Adams (No. 3) of the Brick House—his salt-glaze ware—The Murhalls of Bagnall Hall, &c.—The Hales of Cobridge—William Adams of the Brick House and Cobridge Hall, &c.—Brickhouse Pottery let to Josiah Wedgwood—Adams productions in pottery—Introduction of Transfer Printing into Staffordshire—William Adams acquires the greater part of Cobridge—his mining properties—his business connections with Boulton and Watt—The Daniels—Enoch Wood—his china and earthenware productions—his purchase of the Advowson of Burslem—Bill before Parliament concerning the sale of Glebe Lands—Corn Bill riots—making of Waterloo Road—Reverend Edward Whieldon, Rector of Burslem—Building of St. Paul's, Dalehall—Origin of Cobridge School—William Adams sells the Hadderidge—buys property at Cheddleton and Knowl Wood, Market Drayton—John Offley Crewe—John Ward, Lawyer—Barber Wedgwood and Burslem Church—John Tomlinson, Solicitor, and his family—Notes on the Murhalls of Bagnall Hall, &c. . . . . p. 93

CHAPTER V.

THE ADAMS FAMILY OF BIRCHES HEAD &amp; NEWCASTLE.

SECTION I: John Adams (No. 1) of Birches Head—his property at Birches Head and Sneyd—his lease of mines—his purchase of the Bucknall Hall property—The Machins of Penkhull and Botteslow—Thomas Adams (No. 1) of Birches Head—Muster Roll of 1640—The Haslams of Dilhorne—The Beeches and Wedgwoods of Burslem—The Broughs of Middle Hulme—the Plague at Burslem, 1647 and 1648—Thomas Adams (No. 2) of Burslem—Burslem Church—John Adams (No. 2) of Birches Head—his purchase of Cobridge Gate House—The Bull's Head, Sneyd Green—his leases of mines—gives land for Hanley Church—Reverend Richard Adams—The Hollins family—The Chatterleys—Josiah Wedgwood and Mrs. Chatterley—Humphrey Palmer and his productions—Rev. John Middleton. SECTION II: Thomas Adams of Ford Green, and his descendants—The Ellison Pooles—The Adams Crest and Arms—The Offley Crewes. SECTION III: Joseph Adams of Newcastle, and his descendants. SECTION IV: Benjamin Adams of Newcastle—Benjamin Adams, Vicar of Barlaston.—The Watkiss, Lloyd, and Fenton families . . . . . p. 171

CHAPTER VI.

THE ADAMS FAMILY OF BUCKNALL HALL &amp; BAGNALL, &amp;c.

SECTION I: William Adams of Sneyd Green and Bucknall Hall—The Hansons. SECTION II: Thomas Adams of Burslem—The Fords of Ford Green—Robert Wood of Burslem. SECTION III: William Adams of Sneyd and Bagnall—his purchase of Bagnall Bank House and Greenfields—Introduction of salt-glaze into Staffordshire—The Elers. SECTION IV: John Adams of Bucknall Mill and his descendants—The Pares and Heaths—Miss Mulock, author

CONTENTS

xiii

of John Halifax, Gentleman—The Lounds of Norton. SECTION V: Samuel Adams of Milton—The Bretts. SECTION VI: Jonathan Adams of Milton. SECTION VII: Ralph Adams of Milton—Jonathan Adams, Miller, of Burslem—The Davenports of Longport and Westwood, Staffs., and Foxley, Hereford—Jonathan Adams of Milton and Etruria, and his descendants. SECTION VIII: Richard Adams of Greenfields—Notes on the Adams families of Milton, Bucknall and Hanley . . . . . p. 225

CHAPTER VII.

THE ADAMS FAMILY OF BAGNALL & FENTON HALL.

SECTION I: Edward Adams of Bagnall—Bagnall and the Bagnalls—The Meares and Mayers of Hanley and High Carr—Elijah Mayer—The Hulmes of Bagnall Grange. SECTION II: William Adams of Bagnall Bank—Prince Charles Edward's visit—William Murhall, High Sheriff of Staffs—Dutch potters at Bagnall—Jacob Warburton and the Warburtons—The Reptons of Norton—The Bournes of Chell and Newcastle—The Meares of Norton Green Hall—The Whieldons of Ipstones and Fenton Low—Thomas Whieldon, the eminent potter. SECTION III: Richard Adams of Cobridge Gate—Enamelled salt-glaze ware—Greenwood Hall. SECTION IV: William Adams of Stoke-upon-Trent—a noted master potter—The Heaths of the Hadderidge—The opening of the world's first railway—Edward Adams, of Basford Hall—Lewis Adams, of the Watlands, Master of the North Staffordshire Harriers and First Chief Bailiff of Stoke-upon-Trent—origin of arms of Stoke-on-Trent . . . . . p. 267

CHAPTER VIII.

ADAMS OF GREENFIELD.

William Adams (No. 1) of Greenfield—his career—he acquires the Hadderidge, Burslem—Notes on the Greenfield estate—its origin—the Breeze family—the Astburys—The Challinors of Leek, &c.—William Adams (No. 2) of Greenfield and Wolstanton—The Pembertons—The Serjeantsons—the Roches of Daventry—The Worthingtons of Lancashire, Worcestershire, and Leek, Staffs.—Jukes of Shrewsbury . . . . . p. 337

CHAPTER IX.

ADAMS OF GREENGATES.

William Adams of Tunstall—famous English potter—brief sketch of his life—origin of Greengates—Benjamin Adams of Greengates and his descendants—the Cartliches of Tunstall and Woore—the Kenricks of Woore—The Coles of Knypersley—the Heaths of Biddulph . . . . . p. 373

CONTENTS

CHAPTER X.

ADAMS OF BEMERSLEY.

Early origin of the family—the Bowyers of Knypersley—The Thorleys of Biddulph—Stephen Adams and Dorothy Wedgwood—The Rowleys of Turnhurst and Ridgway—the Fords of The Mosse—The Lovatts of Clayton . p. 389

APPENDICES.

Wills of unidentified Adamses—Fords of Norton parish—Heaths of Burslem, &c.—Whieldons of Ipstones and Fenton . . . . . p. 405